

Roy Drusky, Now (Is A Lonely Time)

Now is a lonely time now you'll no longer be mine
Now and forever what can I do now that I'm losing you
Now is a time to regret now until I can forget but you never told me how do I spend
The long lonely difference between now and then
Now is the last of the wine that's so sweetly flavored the time
Now there's no reason to see each day through now that I'm losing you
Now is a lonely time now you'll no longer be mine
Now and forever what can I do now that I'm losing you
