

Roy Orbison, Blue Teardrops Are Falling

Blue teardrops are falling
What lonely shades of blue teardrops
From a silent heartache deep inside
Comes a lonely feeling I can't hide
I can't remember just how long I've cried
Blue teardrops, blue teardrops

Blue teardrops, blue teardrops all night long
Blue teardrops, blue teardrops since you've gone
Remember baby, I need you
Remember baby, my love for you will never die
Believe me baby, I can't stop it
Believe me baby, I can't help but cry

Blue teardrops are falling
What lonely shades of blue teardrops
Blue teardrops, tears
Blue teardrops, tears in my heart
Tears on my pillow

When those blue, blue teardrops start, they never stop!
Falling, falling all of the time
Falling, falling, filling my mind
Ev'ry time I think of you
Teardrops, blue teardrops
Blue teardrops come around

What lonely shades of blue teardrops
