

Roy Orbison, Bobby And The Boys

It's been so long since you dropped by the store
You're still as pretty as you were before
You've still got personality and poise
You were always such a hit with me and the boys

What - you need some candy
A magazine, some toys
To take back home
To Bobby and the boys

Yes i remember Bobby
Mr. Popularity
Do you ever tell him
How it was with you and me?

Here, take the candy
There'll be no charge for the toys
And give my best
To Bobby and the Boys

As i lock up, there my baby goes
How much i love that girl, nobody knows
Guess i'll go out to bright lights and noise
While she goes home to Bobby and the boys
While she goes home to Bobby and the boys
