

Roy Orbison, Crawling Back

(Roy Orbison/Bill Dees)

Only you and no one else
Can keep me crawling back
You know I can't help myself
And now I'm crawling back

After all you've done to me
The times you've turned me down
I still will be your clown
Because I love you, I'm crawling back

You know I would die for you
Heaven knows how I have cried for you
But what else can I do
But crawl back to you, ooh,
Crawling back to you.

People stop, they talk and they stare,
But they don't know that you really care.
That you're only lonely and they can believe
And you leave me alone when the world turns down.

Whenever you might need me
I will come crawling back
Wherever you will lead me,
I will come crawling back
