Roy Orbison, Double Date

Me and my buddy went on a double date I was feeling great, I could hardly wait I got my lovin' baby and introduced my friend He fell for her, she fell for him On a double date, on a double date

Now my baby's gone, I'm all alone All because of a double date, of a double date

Then my one time buddy went on a double date

He was feeling great, he couldn't hardly wait He got my loving baby and introduced his friend Ha ha, and then that was the end On a double date, on a double date

Now my baby's gone, I'm all alone All because of a double date, of a double date of a double date, of a double date....
