

Roy Orbison, Hey

Ah... hey, ah... hey
Hey, do you know that your eyes have a glow
That i know will melt your heart away?
Hey, do you know you got lips soft and warm
And in your arms i wanna stay

I am yours come what may
If you'll only let me love you
Hey, hey, hey, what do you say?

Ah... hey, ah... hey
Hey, do you know that i just wanna touch
Would that be too much for me?
Hey, do you know that i like ?? talk

And your walk's really something to see

I will love you night and day
If you'll only let me love you
Hey, hey, hey, what do you say?

I said hey, what do you say?
I said hey, hey, hey, what do you say?
I said hey, hey, hey, what do you say?
I said..... (repeat to fade)
