

Roy Orbison, Inseperable

The sand and the sea are inseperable
And nothing can take them apart
And that's how you will be, forever with me
Inseperable from my heart

The powers that be are unchangeable
And somehow, somewhere are the stars
That can send you to me, and then you will be
Inseperable from my heart

Like the birds in flight

Drifting clouds of white
Shining stars at night
Are fulfilling their destiny
And so are we

For we are born to be inseperable
And nothing can take us apart
Like my heartbeat and me, you will always be
Inseperable from my heart
Inseperable from my heart
