

Roy Orbison, Jenny

Oh I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny
Who has gone far away now from me
Oh.I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny
And I wonder if she ever thinks of me?

Long ago we were strollin' together
All the shores and the drive-in's we did see
Now she spends all her time with another
But I wonder if she ever thinks of me?

Oh I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny

Who has gone far away now from me
Oh.I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny
And I wonder if she ever thinks of me?

Oh I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny
Who has gone far away now from me
Oh.I'm thinking tonight of my Jenny
And I wonder if she ever thinks of me?
