

Roy Orbison, Laugh

Love laughed at you and made you blue
Now here's what you should do

Well laugh, though your heart is breaking in two Yeah laugh, don't let them know he hurt you
Well laugh and pretend true love will come again
Yeah laugh, laugh and laugh

Laugh, though the one you love is really gone
Yeah laugh, even though you'll be alone
Yeah laugh and pretend true love will come again
Yeah laugh, laugh and laugh

Well let me hear you laugh now
Though it's hard, so hard for you to do

Laugh with me, cos you see
I've been there too

Well laugh and pretend true love will come again
Yeah laugh and believe it's not the end
Yeah laugh like a clown
Don't let your heart break down
Yeah laugh, laugh and laugh

Love laughed, it's true
But look at you
Now you're laughing too
