

Roy Orbison, No One Really Cares

No one really cares if i cry
No one, no one since you said goodbye
No one

Nowhere to go, not a thing to do
Oh, that's what i get for loving you
No one

No one to dream about, no one

No one since love walked out on me
No one
No one to dream about, no one
No one since love walked out on me

Oh, nowhere to go, not a thing to do
Oh, that's what i get for loving you
No one, no one
