

Roy Orbison, Spanish Nights

(Roy Orbison/Joe Melson)

Starlit spanish nights, little village lights are still on my mind
In a small cafe we danced the night away just lost in love and time
When I left that day I heard you cry and say, "If you find someone new,
Who breaks your heart in two
You know what to do,
Come back I'll still be true
To spanish nights and you"

I can't forget the day
This old boat steamed away
Taking me to sea
A world not meant for me
Now my hurt is through, I'm coming home
To spanish nights and you

Magic spanish moons
Sleepy afternoons fill my memory
Walking hand in hand by the sea and sand
I know you wait for me
Feeling all alone
Now I'm almost home, this time I know I'll stay
The Lord is with me praying, I have heard Him saying
Love her all your days
Dream your spanish nights away

I can see those harbor lights
At last I'm holding you
Under spanish nights
