

Roy Orbison, Time And Again

Time and again I've come back to you
Even though I know what you'll do
You'll break my heart right in two
But time and again I've come back to you

Time and again I've been a fool for you
Time and again what else can I do
I'll be right there waiting, yeah, waiting

Though it's all in vain, time and again

Time and again I've come back to you
Even though I know what you'll do
You'll break my heart right in two
But time and again I've come back to you
