

Royal Blood, Hold On

Black fumes clouding up your mind
But they'll burn away in time
You got used, you got left behind
But I'm always on your side

I know your world's shaking,
Body and mind's breaking
Catch yourself, don't fail to the ground
Life is hard when you're losing,
Nothing easy's worth doing
Save yourself, don't throw in the towel

Cause you gotta hold on
I know you're tired
Being so strong
But you don't know what you got 'til it's gone
So don't give up
Don't let go
Cause I won't!
But you gotta hold on

Typhoons in your head all night
As thoughts crash and break like waves
They'll disappear without a trace
So don't try to control
What you can't escape

I know your world's shaking,
Body and mind's breaking
Catch yourself, don't fail to the ground
Life is hard when you're losing,
Nothing easy's worth doing
Save yourself, don't throw in the towel
