

Royal Blood, Typhoons

Rip the plug out the radio
Switch me off
Put me under
Till iu am sky high
Give me vertigo
Let me know when i t's ver

Cos all these chemicals
Dancing through my veins
They don't kill the cause
They just numb the pain
I need waking up
I should face the truth
I could calm the storm
If i wanted to

My thoughts becoming prasite
That live to keep me trrified
I tell myslef i will be alright
Typhoons keep on raging
And i don't know why

Typhoons
