

Royal Hunt, A Ballet's Tale

Now you're trying so hard to deceive me
But whatever you do ? believe me:
You can run but you'll never leave me? it's a bullet's tale

Always dreamed to be The One but thousands just like me
Were created for this gun. So how it's gonna be?
Enjoy the view until the day we meet
I'm chasing you

Way too small to bear a name but thought it could be yours
Doesn't matter, just the same ? no shortages in wars
So round and round we go until the day
You're going down

Now you're trying so hard to deceive me
But whatever you do ? believe me:
You can run but you'll never leave me? it's a bullet's tale
Getting closer? just to remind you:
Be aware, I am right behind you
Go wherever you go ? I'll find you? it's a bullet's tale

A bit of led, a bit of brass, some magic stuff inside
Here I go ? a final blast ? a short yet pleasant ride
No cheers, no prize? just take your final breath
And close your eyes

Now you're trying so hard to deceive me
But whatever you do ? believe me:
You can run but you'll never leave me? it's a bullet's tale
Getting closer? just to remind you:
Be aware, I am right behind you
Go wherever you go ? I'll find you? it's a bullet's tale
