

Royal Hunt, Not My Kind

Time is running out, you're left behind
Can't you see, you're not my kind?

Somebody's gain's built on somebody's loss
Friendship of ours was a beautiful ghost
Better run home, put up a hell of a race
Get yourself a pretty, brand new face

You're not my kind
No you're not my kind
Not my kind

Tell me your dream and I'll tell you your soul
Higher we climb? Even harder we fall
Son of a bitch keeps on hanging around
Stay away or I'll rip your heart out
Hustling left and right, so this is your kind?

Time is running out, just let it go
Search your heart and you will find
Seeds of hate and envy, left to grow
Can't you see, you're not my kind?
Not my kind
Not my kind

Year after year, all those battles we've fought
Hard to believe, but you've got yourself caught
Nowhere to hide, now you're under attack
Nice little load and it broke your back
Scream into the night, so this is your kind?

Time is running out, just let it go
Search your heart and you will find
Can't you see, you're not my kind?
Time is running out, just let it go
Search your heart and you will find
Can't you see, you're not my kind?

Time is running out, just let it go
Search your heart and you will find
Can't you see, you're not my kind?
Time is running out, just let it go
Search your heart and you will find
Can't you see, you're not my kind?
Not my kind
