

Royal Hunt , Season's Change

Images of winter gently move, fallen, golden leaves
Sun is hiding far beyond the roof, knowing what it means
Days are getting shorter, I can see chilling tears of fall
Running down for you and leaving me out here in the cold

Since you left whatever I would do, nothing comes out right
I'm fighting through another lonely day, another sleepless night
Dreaming 'bout wings to fly away, but as I was told
Broken-hearted can't, they're cursed to stay out here in the cold

This change of a season is over and done
Won't look for a reason, just sad that you're gone

Every single word you've ever said is ringing in my ears
Making me remember what I had, this burning trail of tears
Leading me away, into the night, closer to my fall
Season's changing, turning of the light out here in the cold

This change of a season is over and done
Won't look for a reason, just sad that you're gone

Disappearing very slow, this line of footsteps in the snow
Spirit of my better days, living on the edge
Be it so and let it be, 'coz as far as I can see
No way to escape this seasons change

This change of a season is over and done
Won't look for a reason, just sad that you're gone
Out here in the cold, it's over and done
Won't look for a reason, just sad that you're gone
This change of a season is over and done
