

Ruben Studdard, Play Our Song

Ladies and Gentlemen, this is a Jazzy Fizzle produshizzle.
I'd like to introduce yall to somebody that you should already know.
Introducing Ruben Studdard.

I noticed lately we've just been getting right.
Our love is there it just needs some light.
I think we need to go back to basics.
Like when I used to call you on the phone and tell you to get your fresh clothes on.
We need to start that again.
Baby listen, let me tell you what we gon do,
we gonna act like we brand new.
And I'ma take you to the spot where I first laid eyes on you.
And we gon dance tonight and hit that one-two step,
one-two step baby.
All night yea yea.
Tell the DJ to play our song.

My song, your song.
The way he did the night we fell in love.
And I held your hand. Do you remember that?
Yes I remember that.
Play our song and take me back to the night
I met my baby and I asked you to dance.
Do you remember that, yes I remember that.

You always runnin around and I work till the sun go down.
We hardly see one another.
And barely got time for each other.
And we need a break. We need to get this love back poppin.
And let the people know we still got it.
Here's the way.
Let me tell you what we gon do,
we gonna act like we brand new.
And I'ma take you to the spot where I first laid eyes on you.
And we gon dance tonight and hit that one-two step,
one-two step baby.
All night yea yea.
Tell the DJ to play our song.

My song, your song.
The way he did the night we fell in love.
And I held your hand. Do you remember that?
Yes I remember that.
Play our song and take me back to the night
I met my baby and I asked you to dance.
Do you remember that?

Ooohh I, oh I, I just wanna take it back.
Ain't nothing wrong with that.
Let's get back to the love.
Ooohh I, oh I just wanna get back to me and you.
You know we're all I do.
Tell the DJ to play our song