

Rudimental, We The Generation (feat. Mahalia)

Lately I've been out of love
Seems like I'm not good enough
Maybe life's just really dark
Like a diamond in the rough

I can see more clearly now
I need you to trust me now
I want you to hear me out,
All I'll do is scream and shout

We the generation and we have had enough /4x

Bet you think this is the end
We don't wanna play pretend, No
Because you'll make my stakes again
We'll put up our best defense

I can see more clearly now
I need you to trust me now
I want you to hear me out,
All I'll do is scream and shout

We the generation and we have had enough /4x
