

Ruel, too many feelings

i let out too many feelings shit i should have kept in probably should have left them all unsaid i didn't wanna scare you just wanted to be near you i wanted you to hear what's in my head you know i'll take it back if you take me back too wasn't enough to be honest should've have been dust in my pocket i had enough but i lost it all
