

Ruth Ann, Go

I say go go go, just let me know
Forever go go go, leave me alone
I'm asking why why why, so many lies
You are too cold cold cold, to be alive

I know that I was blind
While you're sailing away don't expect me to ask
You to stay

I say go go go, just let me know
Bye bye and go go go, leave me alone

I can remember you being by my side
Many desires are here in me tonight

I say go go go, just let me know
Forever go go go, leave me alone
I'm asking why why why, so many lies
You are too cold cold cold, to be alive

The dying swan has gone
What you left is a gap in my soul
And I'll show you the door

I say go go go, just let me know
Bye bye and go go go, leave me alone

I said go
I said go
