

Ryba And The Witches, Rain On Your Back

Rain on your back
And wind in your face
When you lied
You could survive

I am the blood and you are the flame
you are so beauty
Kicking down the evils door
I need so more
Black heart devil in the night
Getto in my mind
You gotta play if you
Wanna survive...
You wanna survive

Rain on your back
And wind in your face
When you lied
You could survive

The rain comes down
You could survive

You are the flame and I am the same
You are so beauty
Life is snake that bites on my neck
every day check
So kill your jealousy and watch you bleed
I wanna hit
I down on my knees
mother please
I down on my knees

Rain on your back
And wind in your face
When you lied
You could survive

The rain comes down
You could survive
The rain comes down
In a funky town
