

Ryo Okumoto, Coming Through

I know you're down, my friend
Shedding tears for what might have been
Time won't stand still
But if we try, time will heal.

All those hurts you hold
Deep within the skin, the blood still flows
There's so much more
I know you've heard it all before, but

I've come through without much of anything
And I'm here for you, and I'll give you everything
'Cause we can give up together
We can rebuild our lives
Watch the pieces fall together
We can kiss our goodbyes away...
It's true.
I can see you coming through.

If love can heal me
There's no doubt that it can set you free
You'll be alright
Still in the black as night, I see you

Coming through without much of anything
And I'm here for you, and I'll give you everything
'Cause we can give up together
We can rebuild our lives
Watch the pieces fall together
We can kiss our goodbyes away...
We can rebuild our lives!
We can hit the big highs!

I've come through without much of anything
And I'm here for you, and I'll give you everything

I can see you coming through.
