

Sabaton, Carolus Rex

All embrace me. It's my time to rule at last.
Fifteen years have I been waiting to sit upon my throne.
No alligance, I will swear no oath!
Throned by god not the church 'cause my power is divine.

They thought I was too young to rule the land.
Yes as they failed to understand how to rule.
My time has come.

I was chosen by heaven.
Say my name when you pray.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

With a lawful protector.
Let them bow to my will.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

Ruined in battle. Lead my men to victory.
No man alive or dead commence me. I answer to the lord!
Hear my orders, question me and die.
What I say was set in heaven, and so it shall be done!

I know I was destined to rule the realm.
All for myself I claim the throne, born to rule!
My time is now.

I was chosen by heaven.
Say my name when you pray.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

With a lawful protector.
Let them bow to my will.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

All this might shall be mine there is no stopping me.
Half of Europe. My rule shall be pushed in my land.
I was thinking to me - that is my dead creed. (not really sure about this one)
My will be done!

They thought I was too young to rule the land.
Yes as they failed to understand how to rule.
My time is now.

I was chosen by heaven.
Say my name when you pray.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

With a lawful protector.
Let them bow to my will.
To the sky!
See Carolus Rex.

To the sky!
See Carolus Rex...
