Safri Duo, All The People In The World

All the people in the world Every boy and every girl Just imagin that we could It isn't hard to do All the people in the world Every boy and every girl Just imagin that we could Face up brother hood All the people -All the people -All the people All the people in the world Every boy and every girl Just imagin that we could It isn't hard to do Give it up... You just got to give it up You just have to give it up You just got to give it up.....2x From the mountains to the sea Through the valleys follow me From down below to the way up high Baby we can touch the sky All the people in the world - All the people in the world Just imagin that we could All the people in the world - All the people in the world Just imagin that we could All the people in the world Every boy and every girl Just imagin that we could Face up brother hood