

Salamandra, Royal Hearing

Here we come
Come when our homes are burning
Here we come
Come gather round

For our land
We will go fighting bravely
For our Queen
We shall fight
We all shall fight
We all shall fight
We all shall fight
Fight till we die

For you, you our Queen we will not mind pain
United we stand, divided we fall
Please, Abigail, let us know
Who is in command and where to go

For you, you our Queen we will not mind pain
United we stand, divided we fall
Please, Abigail, let us know
Who is in command and where we go
