

Salamandra, The Sphinx

Twilight sky
hiding her eyes
guarding the silence
far in the south

Wordless sigh
gazing at night
carries her secrets
of ageless life

The stony creature
close to the Nile
shares distant glory
seen in her sight

Guiding the kings' sleep
all night and day
she's a companion
on their way

The stony creature
close to the Nile
shares distant glory
seen in her sight

all night and day
she's a companion
on their way

Twilight sky
guarding the silence
far in the south
