

Salamandra, The Toady / All Hope Abandon...

Hope for resurrection
That inspired your nation
Dreaming their eternal dream

Now go, join the armies
Kill those who are not willing
Spread our fame, hail the king

Hail your king
Praise his wealthy realm
He is the one who rules your days

Time has come
Win him this war
Glorified be those who will fight

Pray for life in favour
Of your mighty ruler
Never face his angry self

I know you may think of
Forces strange and evil
Raging, screaming night or day...

Hail your king
Praise his wealthy realm
He is the one who rules your days

Time has come
Win him this war
Glorified be those who will fight
