

Salamandra, The Traitor / Roads to Hell

We are the lonely, we are the damned
Why keep on fighting I do not understand
Because this war is heading nowhere

You gotta see that we are left alone
We will gain nothing by going on
Because this war leads to burning hell
Burning burning hell, white hot burning hell

No one will help us survive this war
We have been forgotten, left on our own
Because this war is heading nowhere

Scared to death I feel strong urge to cry
I want to say that I am through with king
Because this war leads to burning hell
Burning burning hell, white hot burning hell

You sold the nation, gave out our souls

Oh my only lord
No more crazy fighting
Hear me, oh my lord
No more senseless dying

We are the lonely, we are the damned
Why keep on fighting I do not understand
Because this war is heading nowhere

You gotta see that we are left alone
We will gain nothing by going on
Because this war leads to burning hell
Burning burning hell, white hot burning hell

Oh my only lord
No more crazy fighting
Hear me, oh my lord
No more senseless dying
