

Salamandra, Warriors

We have won, we have made it clear now
It is time to go, battles farewell
Going home, wounds still bleeding
All the wounds will close as we get home

Coming home, eyes wide open
It is time to feast, enjoy our lives
Celebrate our peaceful living
Heal the wounds of our men and land

We are coming back
Chains of slavery break
All together we shall stay

Fear ruled out the land
Feasts will never end
We will wipe off all the blood

The land was saved by warriors
Destiny has changed
Legendary saviours
Started graceful age
