

Saliva, So Long

once i was a boy who lost his way now i'm i just a man who makes mistakes i'm pushing forward and reverse it gets better then it gets worse i'm thought for last place when you tought me to be first so long
when will i see you again?
it's been so long
i don't where to begin
how did i, get so lost and all alone in your eyes i could write a thousand songs i'm pushing on and up he'll climb i'm spinning forward to rewind sometimes i think that id be better off with you why did you leave?
where did you go?
i just wanted you to know how much i love you
so long
it's been so long
where to begin
