

Sam Brown, Wrap Me Up

I don't remember
I can't recall the last time we laughed together
you always say we'll be fine you're down on your luck you're taking it out on me but when you want to enough you know you've go to

wrap me up in your love
wrap me up never stop

you will surrender
for the first and the last time?
we belong together
I know you'll always be mine
it's all just a game
I sit and I wait for you
it's easy to play
you've only go to

I sit and I wait for you
