My mind's saying I can't get a break with anyone
My heart's saying I'm one step away, don't give it up
I am tired of living, so tired of living with no one to lean on
And I don't wanna finish, don't wanna finish alone

Like a riddle /2x
I know we're tired but i'll worki t out
Like a riddle /2x
Form outside, it looks so easy now
What did i miss in the fall, i will admit
That for me is such a riddle
Like a riddle /2x
Deep down in the riddle of love

Down in /2x
the riddle of love
Down in Like a riddle
down in the riddle of love
Deep down in the riddle of love

Tell me, somebody tell me, am I the only one Broken like an emotion of love, barely holding on?
I am tired of living, so tired of living with no one to lean on
And I don't wanna finish, don't wanna finish alone

Like a riddle /2x
I know we're tired but i'll worki t out
