

Samantha Cole, Journey

Jimmy Harry, Samantha Cole

"Journey" is dedicated to all of Long Island's children.

Journey
(Samantha Cole/Danny Madden/John Poppo)

There is a voice calling out to you
It's a voice that leads you to the truth
When you're lost or troubled and confused
There is a choice
That can only be made by you
It's the choice to fight and to believe
That you can win when others think you'll lose

Journey- when all hope is gone
Journey- 'cause you have the strength to carry on Journey- to where no one else can go
'cause you'll find oh yes you will
The power lies within your soul

There will be times
When it seems too much to bear
When you need help to hold on
Just reach inside your heart
'cause you'll find everything you need is there

Oh...
Repeat
