Sandra, Loreen

take a walk on a sunday mornin' have a talk be silent inside did you only want the shelter what is turnin' your mind

Loreen, Loreen
they are down on you
could you ever find again just what you've been before Loreen, Loreen
you're so down and blue it's gettin' better every day but you're about to lose your way take a walk an' i tail behind you range your thoughts look over your life an' i know what you're recitin' what is turnin' roun' your mind

just what you've been before
Loreen, Loreen
