

Sandro Cavazza, The Days

You don't get to call me now you're gone
That's not how it works when you get lonely
Don't tell me you love me when you don't
Selling out your sorrys
Now don't have to worry cause
You said you'd change
But you stayed the same
You didn't mean it
But I believed it
But I believed it

I stuck around
Though you let me down
Just like you said you'd never do

There goes the years I spent my time on you
There's goes the months of powering through
There goes another week of feeling blue
There goes the days of missing you
There goes the days....the days...the days
There goes the days of missing you
Didn't get to tell you how I felt
Threw it all away & then you put my heart through hell
All those nights I opened up
You couldn't tell
I was being honest did you get just what you wanted cause
