

Santana, Joy (feat. Chris Stapleton)

Something on the inside
Comin' on strong
Everything wasn't right
Now I can do no wrong
All I was afraid of Bringing me down
All the walls around love
Falling to the ground
Joy, rolling like the thunder rumbles (joy)
Time to let the teardrops tumble (joy)
Listen to the hatred crumble
Now that I have joy
Flying on the wings of angels (joy)
Rattling the chains untangled (joy)
I see me from a different angle
Now I have joy
Every single minute
And every hour
I'm drowning in it
And I can feel the power
And I keep on pushing
Through the good and the bad
And I believe
Because I have
Joy, rolling like the thunder rumbles (joy)
Time to let the teardrops tumble (joy)
Listen to the hatred crumble
Now that I have joy
Flying on the wings of angels (joy)
Rattling the chains untangled (joy)
I see me from a different angle
Now I have joy
Joy, rolling like the thunder rumbles (joy)
Time to let the teardrops tumble (joy)
Listen to the hatred crumble
Now that I have joy
Flying on the wings of angels (joy)
Rattling the chains untangled (joy)
I see me from a different angle
Now I have joy
joy
(Joy) joy
(Joy)
(Joy) joy
(Joy) joy
