

Sara Bareilles, Fire

Door clicks while his wheels start spinning on the pavement And I go fill the space up where he has been staying Won't lose much sleep, he never went that deep "Love you,"
You sweet thing, no, I never said that Let me hold your ego while you get your bag packed Don't take this the wrong way But when the spade shows up, I call it by its first name we were , we were never gonna catch fire we'd ve burned up in the flames long before they ever rose up highrer someday, i

I won't have to feel the cold but I do now so I'll know what it feels like when I feel fire, fire fire fire talk touch kiss bend the one's just like all the others and I know al too well that u won't beat the waters I held my breath to swim the shallow shores aren';t safe enough to dive in

long before they ever rose up highrer
someday, i
I won't have to feel the cold
but I do now
so I'll know what it feels like when I feel fire, fire that comes-and-stays fire on-blood-and-veins fie I've only ever wanted fire I my chest in my mouth on my tongue in my mind inb my soul so my lungs can breathe in fire

we'd ve burned up in the flames
long before they ever rose up highrer
someday, i
I won't have to feel the cold
but I do now
so I'll know what it feels like when I feel fire, fire
