Sarah Brightman, I Remember

I remember sky It was blue as ink Or at least I think I remember sky.

I remember snow Soft as feathers Sharp as thumb tacks Coming down like lint And it made you squint When the wind would blow.

And ice like vinyl
On the streets
Cold as silver
White as sheets
Rain like strings
And changing things
Like leaves.

I remember leaves Green as spearmint Crisp as paper. I remember trees Bare as coat racks Spread like broken umbrellas.

And parks and bridges, Ponds and zoos, Ruddy faces, Muddy shoes, Light and noise and Bees and boys And days.

I remember days, Or at least I try. But as years go by They're sort of haze, And the bluest ink Isn't really sky And at times I think I would gladly die For a day of sky.
