

Sarah Brightman, Pay No Mind

I used to believe in something I thought it was me and you that we could fulfill a lifetime and live as lovers do I was wrong

I'll pay no mind
I'm leaving it all behind
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I'll just pay no mind
I'm letting it go this time
'cause I realize I've come so far
if I start to wonder where you are
I'll just pay no mind

The first couple steps were fragile till I got on my feet felt I was walking sideways looking for my release lovers come and they go
when they leave
you'll all ever know

Lovers come and they go
when they leave
you'll all ever know
instead of a review tell you what I'll do

I'll pay no mind
I'm leaving it all behind
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I'll just pay no mind
I'm letting it go this time
'cause I realize I've come so far
if I start to wonder where you are
I'll just pay no mind

I'm still writing love songs
'bout something that's passed me by I know that I'm stronger you think that's a lie but you're wrong

I'll pay no mind
I'm leaving it all behind
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I'll just pay no mind
I'm letting it go this time
'cause I realize I've come so far
if I start to wonder where you are
I'll just pay no mind