

Sarah Brightman, Ship Of Fools

Remember the day
When I first set my eyes on you and
You said the same
Seemed like everything was right for us

Endless nights of loving
All my doubts and fears went away
So tell me what went wrong
Now I need you

Do anything to get to you

'Cos we're riding on a ship of fools

Now you're not the same
And all that's left are memories
The time that we had
Seems like it always has to end this way

But now I know your secrets
And the time is right to tell
To tell me what went wrong
Can you hear me

Do anything to get to you

'Cos we're riding on a ship of fools

Do anything to get to you

'Cos we're riding on a ship of fools
