

Sarah Brightman, Symphony

I don't know what I'm supposed to say
When now suddenly you feel so far away
And you're not prepared to talk
And if you're now afraid to listen
Then I don't want to do this anymore

Oh, I don't know which way that I should turn
Seems the more we love, the more we have to learn
And I keep staring into space
Like it somehow has the answers
So don't let the music end
Oh, my darling

CHORUS:

Symphony
It's gone quiet around us now
How I wish you would hold me
And that you never told me
That it's better if you leave
Look at the sun
We're starting to lose all of the light
Where we once burned so brightly
Tell me we might be
Throwing it away

When you don't know what you've got until it's gone
But then nothing ever hurt like holding on
I am scared and unprepared
And I feel like I am falling
So can you tell me where did we go wrong

Symphony
It's gone quiet around us now
How I wish you would hold me
And that you never told me
That it's better if you leave

If everything is broken
And it's better that we give up
I'll remember how we once had Something beautiful
