

Sarah Brightman, Un Jour Il Viendra (English - One Day He'll Return)

One day he'll return
My dear love from yesterday
Love will return
On a day of light

In the hours that come
Or in the coming year
I don't care if I have to wait
Because it is the man I love
And I'll be waiting for him even longer

One day he'll return
My dear love from yesterday
And tomorrow love will be reborn
One fine light day

The supreme happiness
And the nights that follow each other
One after the other for a long time
In the hours that will come
Or in the coming year
I'll be waiting for you

One day he'll return
My dear love from yesterday
Love will return
On a day of light

If it's a dream
Make it still last
Oh, my dream
Make it still last

One day he'll return
My dear love from yesterday
Love will return
On a day of light

If it's a dream
Make it still last
Oh, my dream
Make it still last
One day
