

Sarah Sadler, Simply Complicated

We read like a magic book
Everyday a different look
Nothing here is black and white
It's simply complicated
You've been stumbling through my heart
Should we stop or should we start/
I don't think I understand
It's simply complicated

Chorus:
You're lovely, and forever will be
I find you, then you lose me
I know you, you're a mystery and
I wonder why it's so confusing

Are you wrong or am I right
We make up and then we fight
Is it just a fact of life
Is simply complicated
I'm a key that's hard to turn
You're a lesson left unlearned
It's not that anyone's at fault
It's simply complicated

Chorus

You're guarded, you show it
You love me, I know it
Why don't you just say it?
No telling what makes you that way
Simply Complicated
