

Sarcastic Sounds, Closure (feat. BIRDY, Mishaal)

Standing in line is only painful
My fallen angel
Is at my feet
Oh and I

Smile now, it's almost over
Take a bow, sit back down
And ask for closure
Closure
Quiet down, like you're s'posed to
Hear me out, through the crowd
Like I told ya

I got no cards up my sleeve
I wrote you a song but you sang off key
Call it wrong if it's what you need
It's always wrong when it's time to leave
You never gave up
You never believed
I've gotta move on and it's killing me
Right or wrong, it's how it goes
It's time to go, you gotta go

Smile now, it's almost over (it's almost over)
Take a bow sit back down
And ask for closure (ask for closure)
Closure
Quiet down, like you're s'posed to (like you're s'posed to)
Hear me out, through the crowd
Like I told ya (told ya)

Hey it's me, I know we're not talking
But honestly I couldn't stop myself from calling
To hear your voice and you're doing fine
You got your closure but I'm missing mine
I gave you everything you need
To rip my heart right off my sleeve
And I still don't know why it hurts so bad
'Cause you can't lose something that you never had

Smile now, it's almost over (it's almost over)
Take a bow sit back down
And ask for closure (ask for closure)
Closure

Standing in line is only painful (only painful)
My fallen angel
Is at my feet (at my feet)
Oh and I

Smile now, it's almost over (it's almost over)
Take a bow sit back down
And ask for closure (ask for closure)
Closure
Quiet down, like you're s'posed to (like you're s'posed to)
Hear me out, through the crowd
Like I told ya (told ya)

Smile now, it's almost over
Take a bow, sit back down
And ask for closure
