

Sasha, Rhythm Is Love

Originally by Keziah Jones

If I try to take you there, would you come with me?
The reason flies, the fear is scare, the ocean loves the sea
If I try to take you there, would you come with me?
The reason flies, the fear is scare, the ocean loves the sea

Rhythm is love
And heaven is just another world
For the feelin called
Musical, hey yeah
And color is lust
Because all of the sexual "thangs" you do
In my mind I trust you make em all colorful, hey yeah

I'd like to put you
In such a romance
Take you down
To Paris, France
Leave the caf¦ and the bars
Walk the wintry boulevards, hey yeah

Is that a smile I see ?
Well, maybe your not even
Looking at me
So if you smile for no reason
The season is lost
And if your love is the rhythm
The rhythm is love, Baby, the rhythm is love...

I'd like to put you
In such a romance
Take you down
To Paris, France
Leave the caf¦ and the bars
Walk the wintry boulevards, hey yeah

The rhythm is love...
