Save Ferris, Can't Take My Eyes Off Of You

There's no joy without the pain
It's the pain that makes us strong
But sometimes it's just so hard to Carry on when you said that you
Don't care when you said that you'd
Be there well I wonder just how did
Things go so wrong
With everything we had
And you know it's just so sad
But who's to blame

Do who are you
I thought I knew
I guess I was mistaken
So say goodbye
Don't tell me why
I guess I was mistaken

I know I can't run to you again
Cuz you would only run away
I guess there's nothing I can
Do to make you stay you said that
You would never leave a lie you told
And I believed and now you wanna go
And throw this all away so what is happening
Here it's exactly as I feared your just the same

So who are you
I thought I knew
I guess I was mistaken
So say goodbye
Don't tell me why
I guess I was mistaken

As I blame myself again
Wondering what I did
You tell me that you still might
Care for me you say that your
Confused but thats really no
Excuse you don't get sympathy
Cuz I don't need this mind trip
I must be myself must free myself
From you and all you put me through

So who are you
I thought I knew
I guess I was mistaken
So say goodbye
Don't tell me why
I guess I was mistaken
Cuz I only wanted you
