

Save Ferris, Support Your Local Ska Band

Support your local ska band even though it just might stink
Support them despite what the real musicians just may think
It's okay to lower standards in the name of a good cause
You can bend the rules for us this time and give us your applause

When everything should be okay

But it never ever seems to work out that way

SYLSB

It's so hard to be a lonely little ska band

When you live in Orange County punk land
