

Say Anything ft. Hayley Williams, Plea

Please run
Please run
Please run away with me
Please come
Please come
Please come and stay with me
I dont know what to do
If once more I lose you
It would tear me in two
If you should go right now
If you should go right now
If you should go right now
I wanna see you but I dont know how
If you should go right now
I slit this hole in the black expanding sky
If you should go right now
The rain bleeds out before my jaded eyes
If you should go right now
I slit this cut in the black expanding sky
To live without your love I dont know how
On and on I go in this world
Im lusting after every empty girl
As smoke spat from the rifles
Slowly swirls
But I cant explain the way I feel
And all I know tonight is that its real
Praying darling
Maybe someday we
Together can be
The king and queen
Make me believe you mean this
Maybe someday we
Believe this when I see it
Together can be
The king and queen
Of all I see
