Say Anything, I Will Never Write An Obligatory So

Take this pen to paper, like a virgin befalled by the danger. Poetry was never this real to me. Well, i was too far gone to save her.

Oh Lordy! The sun is coming up! A marshmallow into a cloud! I'll never shut up again! I'm fking disavowed.

Take this pen to paper, in a stink there with four total strangers. I am lost cause freedom has it's cost. My box is full, i'll call you later.

I want my baby back! I want my baby back! I miss you, miss you.

I want my baby back! I want my baby back! I miss your kiss, I miss you.

I was hoping you were open but you were not. I missed my shot

But then you called me What befalled me, I never knew. I never knew it was you.

I got my baby back! I got my baby back! I miss you, miss you.

I got my baby back! I got my baby back! I miss your kiss, I miss you.

And, i got you back! And, i got you back! And, i got you back! And, i got you, Got you, back!

Take this pen to paper. Watch me take this pen to paper. Woah!

I take this pen to paper Watch me take this pen to paper Woah!
